LOSS OF VOICE

After Acute Bronchitis
CURED BY USING
AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better.
I found it very difficult to preach,
and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry

Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's

OVER MOUNTAINS.

My heart went roaming and flying
Where her one treasure was.
The day was luridly dying.
A low wind sighed, "Alas!"

There was no bird at all
Out of his nest so warm.
Over the mountain wall
My heart went into the storm.

And when the night was mink,
And on the shrieking sea
The wind was doing its work
My heart came back to me.

Tapped at my window pane,
Out of the storm and din,
Out of the night and rain,
I rose and let her in.

"O heart, like a frightened bird,
Heart, like a small gray dove,
Say, hast thou seen or heard Anything of our love?"

But never a word she said,
Her eyes were laden and dim,
Her breast had a stain of red,
She spoke no word of him.

And whether she saw him not
Over the mountains gray,
Or whether she forgot,
I know not to this day.

—Katharine Tynan Hinkson in Good Words.

BALDNESS NO OBJECTION.

How the Enterprising Photographer Overcomes the Fears of Hairless Sitters.

An agent soliciting trade for a Broadway photographer recently called at the Park Avenue home of one of New York's best known physicians and tried to convince the doctor that he should have his picture taken. He was selling — is photographing. The physician has a terribly bald head. Nothing but a luxurious fringe remains on an erstwhile luxurious head of hair. On that account he had long ago given up having photographs of himself made, so he replied:

"No; thank you. I want none of your company. I have broken myself of the photograph habit. My head is too bald for the business."

But the agent was persistent, and finally the physician said: "I will make you a fair proposition. I will take a double dose of your company if you will promise to fix my pictures so the bald spot will not show."

"All right," said the agent after a moment's reflection. "Mr. —, can you arrange that. Such things are done every day in our business. Here are your compensation. Come to the gallery for your sitting next Saturday."

When he went to the photographer's studio the following Saturday, the doctor was met at the door by a lad who,
when the customer removed his silk
hat, said:

"Oh, this is Dr. —, is it? Pass right along this way." Curious to know why this lad had been forewarned of his visit, the physician passed in and was finally met by a young lady, who glanced at his head and said:

"Oh, Dr. —, I believe—the man who wishes to have photographs which will indicate that he has a full growth of hair on his head."

"I'm the man," perplexedly replied the physician as he went on out into the operating room.

"Ah," said the man in charge of the cameras, "this is Dr. —, is it not—the man for whom we are to make photographs which will not show the baldness of his head, as our agent promised.
Just kindly step over to the other end of the room. Do not let your coat and hat down. Keep the overcoat on your arm and kindly place your hat on your head. That's right. Now look pleasant, please. There, your picture's taken."

"Well, I hope I can get home without being taken in by a gang of bunco steers," said the physician, after he realized that he had been made the victim of a clever trick.—New York World.

Manual Training.

An old friend of Dr. Holmes says:
About 20 years ago, being in Boston one day, I called upon him and was ushered into his library unannounced. As the door opened I heard a singular scraping sound, and the doctor rose to meet me with a slightly embarrassed air.

When the servant was gone, I said,
"I am afraid I disturbed you."

He laughed. "Yes, you did, but I was at work on neither a poem nor a lecture."

He touched a spring, and out from under the library table rolled a little bench fitted out with a turning lathe and tools.

"This is the way I rest myself," he said. "But there are people in the world who would think that if a physician made 'jimmicks' he must be mad. So when I think any such fools are coming I touch this button, and away goes my workbench, and I am discovered in character, bending over my books."

Dr. Holmes was one of the first of our physicians to see and point out the danger in the prolonged nervous strain to which brain workers in this country too often subject themselves. He insisted upon the value of a hobby, some mental occupation differing from the ordinary business or profession, on which the brain could at once work and rest.—

A Newspaper For the Blind.

There is but one newspaper in the world that is published in the interest of blind people, The Weekly Summary of London. It was started in the spring of 1892 and now claims subscribers in every quarter of the globe. It is printed in "raised," or Braille letters, and is considered a literary curiosity. That it will succeed may be judged from the fact that it has been twice enlarged since the fall of 1893.—St. Louis Republic.

CONTRASTS OF SEWING WOMEN.

Advantages of the Factory Girl in the Country Over Her Sister in the City.

You may see in any one of perhaps a hundred shops in this city colorless, and eyed, dingily clad women bending over sewing machines amid squalid surroundings, with no outlook save through a window opening upon a sordid street.

You may see in at least a score of country villages 50 miles from any great city a crowd of neatly clad, happy looking girls and women busied with like tasks, but amid clean and pleasant surroundings, with glimpses of a smiling landscape through every window.

The New York women, released from their toil, hasten home to gloomy tenement lodgings and unwholesome fare.

The village girls troop from the factory to modest but clean and pleasant homes, where food is fresh and abundant.

The New York sewing machine woman is an insignificant unit in a great community. She feels daily the pressure of her fellows that are ready to take her place and her earnings. She hears from embittered men and women talk of the rights of labor and the greed of wealth.

She knows that her earnings would not keep some of her rich sisters in out flowers. Whenever she stirs out of her own dingy quarter, it is to see at every step evidence of the luxury in which some live and of the contrast between her lot and theirs.

The village factory girl has hardly heard that there is a labor problem. Her $200 or $350 a year, earned at the sewing machine, clothes her well, procures for her small luxuries and helps to keep the family above water. She makes little pleasure trips hither and yon when work is slack and looks forward with confidence to marriage and a home of her own, clean, sweet and comfortable.

She never sees among her fellow townfolk one who has any essential comfort that she lacks, and nine women out of ten in the village have less to spend on dress than she has. She never sees a hungry or ragged person, unless it be an occasional tramp, and she hardly grasps the meaning of what she now and then hears about the lives of the poor in great cities.

The New York slave to the sewing machine lives half an hour from the heart of the western world and may, if she will, on any night see Broadway and its throngs by electric light. The village factory girl believes that she would be happy to give up all her comforts for the other's privilege of seeing at will the splendors of the great city.

The New York sewing woman would not, if she could, change places with the village factory girl.—New York Sun.

A Turfman's Tale.

A New Jerseyman told me a good story the other day on one of our foremost turfmen, a man whose name is perhaps printed oftener than that of any other connected with racing in America. A good many years ago this turfman, who was not then deep in the racing business, arrived in Jersey City with a trainload of mustangs from the plains of Texas. He knew nothing of the laws of the state nor of the ordinances of the city. He knew that he wanted to sell his mustangs and thought the best way to do it was to sell them

HIGH SCHOOL ELECTION.

In another column will be found an address to the voters of the Sonoma Valley Union High School written by Hon. Robt. Howe, the President of the Board of Trustees. He favors the purchase of the old College building on Broadway and we understand that every one of the Trustees, eight in number, are in accord with him.

But for all that, much opposition is being manifested in Sonoma against the proposed purchase. This opposition has been brought about for the most part because only one proposition has been submitted to the people, to-wit: the purchase of this particular building. It is claimed by those who will vote against buying the building that the High School Board ought to have looked up a site in this town, had plans and specifications drawn for the erection of a new building and then let the people choose between the two.

This latter course would probably have been the correct one. However that may be, the new High School Board have been liberal-minded enough to knock out that nefarious ten-years' lease, entered into by the old Board, and in all fairness have submitted a proposition to the people to buy the building. The question is now entirely in the hands of the voters of the five districts comprising the Union High School. Without their sanction the building cannot be bought. Should the proposition be voted down another election will have to be held to vote a tax for a brand new edifice, for the law says we cannot lease but must own our own High School building.

THE CHURCH SCANDAL.

THE First Congregational Church scandal of San Francisco still continues to be the all-absorbing topic. As the examination of Mrs. Davidson, charged with extortion by the pastor of the church, progresses a great deal of the inside history of Dr. Brown and the female members of his church is being brought to light, and it is a "dirty mess" to say the least.

It has already transpired that the gay parson had a penchant for the divorced women belonging to his flock, and was withal a gay Lothario. Of the women who have so far been dragged into public notice through this scandal it transpires that Miss Mattie Overman is not a Miss at all, but the divorced wife of a gambler and Mrs. Minnie Falk is also a divorced woman. As for Mrs. Tunnel, who has "tunnelled" out of sight, little is known yet, while Mrs. Davidson has served two years in a penal institution in the East for obtaining goods under false pretenses. These women have been lying at each other like cats ever since the expose, and if all they tell about each other be true Dr. Brown's female congregation, from a religious point of view, is a very peculiar set.

That this scandal will injure the churches does not admit of a doubt, following as it does so close upon the Emmanuel Church murder trial, which brought to light that Durant, the Sunday School teacher, had private lock and keys to that church and that innocent girls were lured into its sacred precincts and debauched and murdered by the arch fiend.

However, while a few men and women seemingly become devout church members to hide their hypocrisy under the mask of religion our churches are composed for the most part of God-fearing and conscientious Christians. And this is just where the trouble comes in. One does not know who is who unless an expose like that of Dr. Brown and Miss Mattie Overman comes to the surface.

In the end, however, this scandal will prove beneficial to all churches as it will have a tendency to weed out the hypocrites and make converts of true Christian men and women.

"Fee, foe, fie, fum! I smell the blood of an Englishman! Dead or alive I must have some." Is Emperor William to become a modern "Jack the Giant Killer"? England has again got her "foot in it." This time she has aroused the ire of Germany by attempting the conquest of the Transvaal Republic, through the medium of Dr. Jameson, an English adventurer, and war between the two countries is apt to be declared any day. For the present the promised scrap between the United States and Great Britain is off.

The Evening Press is the title of a new daily newspaper that made its bow to the people of Santa Rosa on Thursday of last week. It is one of the newest and sprightliest dailies printed in Sonoma county. The Press is published by Finley, Dunbar & Richards. Grant Richards is the editor of the new candidate for public favor, which will be independent in politics. Mr. Richards is one of Sonoma's brightest young journalists. We wish the Press a long, prosperous and useful life.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally and does not drop to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

COUNTY NEWS.

GLEANED DURING THE PAST WEEK.

There are fourteen prisoners in the County Jail.

Cloverdale will hold its Citrus Fair on January 29th, 30th and 31st.

Mrs. Catherine Hanratty of Santa Rosa has been adjudged insane and committed to the Napa Asylum.

H. H. Maynard, the Petaluma druggist, has been arrested for shooting Winnie Gossage on the Fair ranch several weeks ago.

Wm. Benson, alias Buffalo Bill, committed suicide at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Petaluma, Sunday night. He first cut his throat and while slowly bleeding to death made a clean job of it by hanging himself.

Ex-Supervisor V. B. Davis died suddenly of heart failure at his home in Santa Rosa Wednesday evening. He entered the house and calling to his wife and daughter that he was not feeling well fell back dead into the latter's arms. He was a native of West Virginia and aged 61 years.

Mary M. Harris, aged sixteen years, committed suicide at Fountain Grove, Santa Rosa, on Thursday night of last week. Fountain Grove is a mysterious community of men and women and little is known as to its inside workings by the outer world. This suicide should be thoroughly inquired into by the authorities.

Hollis Hitchcock, the richest man in Sonoma county, died in San Francisco on Friday of last week, while being treated in Lane's Hospital in that city. Mr. Hitchcock left a will bequeathing nearly $1,000,000 to his heirs, some twenty-six in number. He also left $20,000 to Bodega Township for repairing its road. The deceased was buried at his old home in Bloomfield on Sunday. He was aged 65 years and was a native of Vermont.

J. W. Rose, the Healdsburg attorney, who was shot and badly wounded by R. Truitt, one day last week, has been arrested on a charge of battery preferred by Mr. Truitt. It appears that Rose, who is said to be somewhat of a big "bully," attacked Truitt, a little slab-sided man, and knocked him down, whereupon he drew his pistol and shot his assailant. Of course public sympathy is on the side of Mr. Truitt in this affair. The desperado has had his day in California. He is no longer a hero, and the chances are that Rose, in addition to being shot by Truitt will also be convicted for assaulting him.

Items from Glen Ellen.

J. H. P. Martens is very low. "Johnnie" Willson has gone to the city to be treated for the rising in his head. Mrs. Willson is packing the household goods with the intention of taking up her residence there.

J. O. Walthers, formerly of this place but now Wells Fargo & Co's agent on the Donahue line at Santa Rosa, was in town yesterday shaking hands with his many warm friends, all of whom regret his change from the Sonoma branch.

The young people of Bennett Valley have made arrangements to give a leap year ball at Mervyn Hall, in this place, next Saturday evening, January 11th, and judging from the enthusiasm shown the affair will be a success.

A great many visitors for this time of the year have been among us the past week, all agreeing that Sonoma county's climate can't be beat. Among the list is to be found the names of H. C. Parks, wife and children, San Francisco; Mrs. W. G. Williams, San Francisco; Fred. Swan, San Francisco; Miss M. Perry, Round Valley and J. T. Peters, San Francisco.

A committee of five, representing Huber Bros. of the California Hall, 620 Bush street, San Francisco, visited this place last Friday to look over the Park and decide on plans for this summer's picnic. The above named firm has leased the grounds and intend having picnics every Sunday. Their reputation as entertainers in the city is good and it remains to be seen whether they succeed in conducting the famous Glen Ellen Park as respectably as they have their past ventures. They cater to the various secret orders of San Francisco, and from these they expect to get the most of their trade. A few improvements are to be made in the way of buildings, etc.

H. C. MANUEL ACQUITTED.

Sequel to a Trumped-Up Charge of an Enemy in Riverside.

A dispatch from Riverside, received just before going to press, says that H. C. Manuel was acquitted yesterday in that place on a charge of defrauding a hotel keeper.

This case has caused Mr. Manuel and his family great loss of peace of mind, has put him to much expense and has injured his reputation more or less.

The charge was a trumped-up one and there was nothing under the law to warrant his arrest. The hotel dead-beat Act, under which he was arrested, was repealed by the Legislature two or three years ago. But even if the Act was still upon the statute books he was guilty of no crime. His case in a nutshell was this: He owed a few hundred dollars for board in Riverside. Before leaving, in part satisfaction of the debt, he turned over all his blockmakers' tools to his creditor and paid him $40 in cash. He then returned to Sonoma and a few weeks after sent the man $45 additional. This did not appease the irate landlord and because Mr. Manuel could not raise the balance due him, something in the neighborhood of $150, he took snap judgment on him and unlawfully caused his arrest as narrated above. A civil suit for damages in a heavy amount will be instituted by Mr. Manuel and the end of this case is not yet.

To the Electors of the Sonoma Valley Union High School District.

As you are called upon to vote for a tax for the purchase of a building and grounds for the use and benefit of the Sonoma Valley Union High School it becomes necessary at this time to explain the necessity thereof.

The Sonoma Valley Union High School was created in 1891 by the votes of the people of the district and is now in its fifth year. For four-and-a-half years we have been tenants and are now have been paying rent and making repairs to property that is not ours. Five years' rent and the cost of repairs would purchase the same building. Therefore, the Board of Trustees recommend that the people assemble at the school houses in the various districts and by their votes instruct its members in the matter.

The college building has been thoroughly examined by that eminent architect J. M. Curtis of San Francisco and has been pronounced strong and well built, requiring certain repairs and improvements, some of which have already been made. His report is now on file with the Clerk of the Board of Trustees.

In view of a recent decision of the Attorney-General of the State of California that School Trustees cannot pay rent for school buildings out of money raised for educational purposes it becomes necessary to have our own school house. An outlay of a few hundred dollars, as estimated by a committee of the Board of Trustees, would place the college building in good order and make it an ornament to the city of Sonoma. However, the building is in fairly good condition at present and could be used without any further expense in the near future.

The property is offered at $1800 and is suited for the purpose of a High School, while it would cost at least $5,000 to purchase land and erect a suitable building, one that would be a credit to Sonoma Valley and to the school.

The school has gradually increased, having an attendance of about 35 pupils. It has proven a success in every particular, ranks with the best schools in the State and is justly the pride of the people of the district.

Since no public-spirited persons have offered to donate a suitable school lot and as none have offered to assist or encourage the Trustees in the erection of a school building and having received no other proposition I have no hesitancy in recommending the purchase of the College building now occupied by said High School.

ROBERT HOWE,
President of the Board of Trustees

Decided by Arbitration.

On Thursday afternoon at the Justice's Court a trial before a Board of Arbitrators was held in which Giovanni Balatti and F. Pezzaglia were the principals. Balatti was taken sick in December at the Swiss Hotel, kept by Pezzaglia, and for the sixteen days he was there he was charged a bill for $181.55, which included board, medical attendance, liquor and other items. He objected to some of the charges, and the whole controversy was referred to three arbitrators who cut the bill down to $140. The arbitrators were C. Filippini, A. Pinelli and V. Bulotti. F. T. Duhring represented Mr. Pezzaglia, while the case of Mr. Balatti was looked after by Robert Poppe.

Brief Mention.

Indications point to rain.

There is a letter in the Santa Rosa postoffice for Miss Kate Batto of Vineyard.

The Sonoma Valley Union High School will reopen next Monday, after a vacation of three weeks.

Rev. Father Whyte has had a new fence built and a fine gravelled walk constructed in front of the Catholic Cemetery on Napa street.

Stephen Akers of Embarcadero has transferred to Mont. P. Akers his ranch of 111 acres, the consideration named in the deed being $5.

By using Hall's Hair Renewer, gray, faded, or discolored hair assumes the natural color of youth, and grows luxuriant and strong, pleasing everybody.

Wm. Trudgen, the practical stone-cutter and mason, has contracted to erect a granite monument in Valley Cemetery over the grave of the late Dr. Wooster. The monument will be the largest and most imposing ever erected in that cemetery.

The annual election of the officers of the Sonoma Volunteer Fire Company will take place on the evening of February 12th. Nominations were in order on Wednesday last. For Chief J. E. Poppe and Julius Fochetti were named and the contest between the opposing candidates promises to be an animated one.

On Monday last Ed. Steiger found ten calves belonging to M. Marti, whose ranches adjoin each other at Embarcadero, running around his place, and driving them to El Verano, a distance of five miles, placed them in the public pound. It cost Mr. Marti $7.50 to redeem the animals.

L. Quartaroli has purchased the City Bakery from J. B. Barbarin, and will run the establishment up to date. His delivery wagon will deliver fresh bread every day to all parts of the valley. Mr. Quartaroli is deserving of success and if prompt attention to business counts for anything he is going to achieve, it too.

A pretty and unusual centerpiece for a table is made as follows: Place in a bowl hollowed in a square of ice enough loosely piled cracked ice to fill the space. In the interstices between the lumps of ice fasten pieces of smilax which will trail out and cover the square block. The effect of the glittering ice and the delicate green tracery is charming.

C. Galli was examined in the Superior Court at Santa Rosa on a charge of insanity last Wednesday and was committed to the Napa asylum.

The stockholders of the Sonoma and Marin Agricultural Society held a meeting at Petaluma Saturday afternoon to decide what should be done with regard to the indebtedness of the society, which amounts to about $10,000. A majority of the stockholders were in favor of transferring the stock to the city and having it assume the indebtedness. As no method of disposing of the property could be adopted at the meeting, the stockholders authorized the directors to levy two assessments of $10 each upon the stock and also voted to defer the disposition of the property until the May meeting.

Cemetery Work.

Wm. Trudgen of this place is still prepared to contract for all kinds of cemetery work. Monuments and coping a specialty. Specimens of his work can be seen in Mountain Cemetery in the lots of Mrs. Goodwin, Messrs. Rufus and Leiding and the public receiving vault.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected.
